

On Sunday, 20th June 2010, a Father's Day Special Train operated by Friends of the Rail (FOTR) had an unfortunate accident near Cullinan.

A large number of wooden sleepers were missing, apparently stolen, from under the railway line. Being

